TABLE OF CONTENTS

Perspective from opposite sides of the consulting table.

Communicating with distressed owners.

Approaching end-of-life issues with the owner.

End-of-life planning.

Supporting the owner as they find the right time to say goodbye.

Euthanasia for pet behaviour problems.

Euthanasia, sudden death and natural death.

After-death services and memorials.

Supporting the newly bereaved pet owner.

Difficulties during the grief process.

Children and companion animal bereavement.

Guiding owners - caring for grieving animals and taking on a new pet.

The personal cost of caring.

From compassion fatigue to compassion resilience.

A holistic approach to end-of-life support in practice.